Ibis Jewellers, Jersey

Parapan® has been chosen for the interior of Ibis, an Art Deco style jewellery shop in Jersey. Sleek display cabinets and panelled walls made from black Parapan® create a glossy look. "Its reflective quality seems to enlarge the dimensions of the interior - it gives a great impression of space, as though surrounded by smoked glass mirrors," says David Overland, MD of Ibis - a great admirer of Parapan®.

A solid high-gloss acrylic, Parapan® is dramatically more durable than lacquer and other finishes. The colour runs all the way through and will never fade. Waterproof and very repairable, it takes the knocks and bangs of retail with equanimity making it perfect for any vertical surface - from drawer doors and cupboards to wall cladding. Available in a wide range of colours, Parapan® is also extremely workable - it can be cut to any size and also thermoformed into curves.
